GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Exhibitor(s) must be actively enrolled in 4-H or FFA in Bandera County. The Exhibitor(s) must live in Bandera County or attend school in Bandera County. The Exhibitor(s) must be in 3rd grade through 12th grade to be eligible to participate in the stock show.
2. All exhibitors must be academically eligible to exhibit their project(s). Exhibitors academically ineligible according to "NO PASS NO PLAY" are ineligible to participate in any BCJLS event or competition. Any entry owned by an ineligible exhibitor is ineligible for competition.
3. Final entries and fees must be received by the BCJLS Treasurer (Jim Mangold) no later than December 1, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE TAKEN IN AG MECHANICS AFTER THIS DATE. Entries received after this date will be charged a $50 per entry late fee, until December 15th. Entries will be accepted after December 15th and until close of weighing and sifting of that division. An additional $200 late fee (cash only) will be charged for each entry after December 15th. ENTRY FEES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE.
4. Exhibitors must continuously own and personally feed and care for their animals(s) throughout the entire feeding period. The feeding period begins with the species validation date through exhibition at all shows. Prior approval must be granted by the species specific County Validation Committee in the event the animal will be outside the direct care of the exhibitor. The animal(s) may not be out of the exhibitor's care for a period exceeding 48 hours. Exception may be made with approval from the specific County Validation Committee.
5. All species will be classified by an official classifier appointed by the Show. The decision as to which breed classification an animal will show in is up to the Classifier. Weights or age at which classes are split will be decided by the Division Superintendent and Assistant. Decisions of judges, classifiers, and sifters are final and may not be protested.
6. Only castrated male animals, female swine, ewe lambs, and doe goats will be allowed to show in market classes. Male animals entered in market classes that show evidence of testicles will be sifted. Castration and de-horning scar must be healed at show time.
7. This is a Premium Only Sale. Exhibitors will be allowed to sell only ONE market entry in the Auction. All exhibitors will sell according to placing (i.e.: Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Breed/Division Champions, Reserve Breed/Division Champions, first place, second place, third place, etc.). Exhibitors must notify division superintendents by 3:00 p.m. on Friday of which place they wish to sell or not sell. A sales/auction list will be compiled by show officials. Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion entries will go through the auction for picture purposes only. The animals will not be sold. Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion Ag Mechanics projects will be eligible for the premium auction.
8. Exhibitors will be limited to the following entries: 4 market lambs; 4 market goats; 4 market steers; 4 market hogs; 3 pens of broilers; 3 turkey toms; 3 turkey hens; and 4 pens market rabbits. Breeding animals are limited to 3 per breed. Angora goat exhibitors may have 3 entries per class. Three (3) entries are allowed in Farm mechanics.
9. Anyone making a protest must pay a $100 filing fee. Protest will be made to the Board of Directors. If the protest is won, money will be refunded. If the protest is lost, money will go to the show fund. Protest will not be considered unless the $100 filing fee has been put up with the Division Superintendent.

10. All show animals must be identified at the time of entry to show grounds.
11. Everyone is warned not to touch or tamper with the show animals without the owner's permission.
12. All exhibitors are expected to help the show officials and other exhibitors when needed.
13. All animals, except Grand Champions and Reserve Grand Champions, leaving the show must be released by the Division Superintendent.
14. All entries must be a credit to the show. All entries not a credit to the show may be sifted by the Board of Directors. Any animal that cannot be reasonably controlled will be sifted by the Board of Directors, and must be removed from the grounds when notified by the Division Superintendent.
15. Any one acting as an extra holder must be entered and eligible to exhibit in the current year's show. Exception: Poultry.
16. No one will be allowed in the show barn or on the grounds after 12:00 a.m. (midnight).
17. The show and the officials of the show will not be responsible for losses or injuries.
18. All questions that arise not covered by the rules or any questions in regard to the rules will be answered by the Board of Directors.
19. All changes made in the rules will go into effect the following year.
20. A commission of 7.5% will be charged on all animals/items sold through the auction.
21. An entry fee of $20 on sheep, goats, swine, pen of broilers, pen or rabbits, and turkeys; $20 on Ag mechanic projects; and $20 on cattle and $10 per class on horses will be charged on all entries.
22. All sifted animals (market and breeding) must be removed from the grounds by the exhibitor on the day of check-in.
23. First place entry from each class will compete for Breed/Division Champion of show. Second place entry from the class that furnished breed Champion will compete for Reserve Champion of the breed/division. Breed Champions will compete for Grand Champion of Show. Reserve breed Champion from the breed that furnished the Grand Champion will compete for Reserve Grand Champion of the show.
24. The judge will decide what place ribbon (i.e. 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc) an entry is worthy of, if only one is showing in a class.
25. Animal abuse will not be allowed.
26. It is the responsibility of exhibitors to check animals in and out with the Division Superintendent. If an exhibitor cannot do this, they must notify the Division Superintendent.
27. Judges will be selected by the Judge Selection Committee.
28. No bedding hay will be allowed in the Showbarn.
29. Exhibitor must show their animal in order to sell at the auction.

30. Exhibitors must be present and check-in with Auction/Exhibitor Line-Up Committee before their project item is due to sell in Auction. All projects must sell in the order as determined by the sales list. Any exhibitor not present when project is called to sell will not be allowed to sell in the Auction.
31. Animals may be weighed no more than twice. Animals must weigh within 2% of weight limits in order to be re-weighed.
32. Medications can only be administered to an animal during the show under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian and must be approved by the division superintendent.
33. NO DOUBLE ENTRIES in any division. Example: you may not exhibit the same hog in the market division and breeding division.
34. Stomach pumping, drenching tubes, or any other method (by esophagus) is prohibited.
35. Exhibitors are responsible for any costs, penalties, etc., for drug residues found in any animal.
36. Exhibitors must bring a written "thank you note" in a stamped, unsealed envelope addressed to the buyer(s) of their animal/Ag. Mech. Project and to the sponsors of buckles, plaques, and/or banners awarded to them by March 1, 2023 or a 25% penalty will be assessed. If thank you notes are not received by March 31, 2023, the exhibitor forfeits the entire amount they would have received. Exhibitors' checks will be distributed by County Extension Agents and Vocational Agriculture Teachers on March 31, 2023. Exhibitor must also bring a written "thank you note" to the sponsor of their trophy and/or buckle if they received one. Names and addresses can be obtained from the County Extension Office or the Vocational Ag Teacher. Any exhibitor's check not cashed by JUNE 30, 2023 shall become null and void, and the funds shall be deposited in the Bandera County Jr. Livestock Show Association General fund.
37. Only the exhibitor will be allowed in the auction ring on the day of the sale. Grand and Reserve Grand Champion animals must stay on exhibit during the sale. Animals cannot be decorated for the sale. No glitter, bandanas, extra clipping, etc. will be allowed. Animals should be exhibited the way they were shown. No alcohol allowed in buyer gift baskets.
38. NO DOGS, or other animals not entered in the show, will be allowed on grounds.
39. Violation of any rule may result in ejection from the show.
40. All sales add-ons must be done in the show office. A buyer's number and buyer's agreement card must be completed for each add-on.
41. If a family member buys or adds on money to an exhibitor, the exhibitor cannot receive their check until the family member's bill is paid in full.
42. All exhibitors must sign and comply with Texas 4-H/FFA Program Ethics Policy.
43. No floor prices for any species.
44. All animals must be penned in barn and will be assigned pens/stalls; showing out of trailers is prohibited.

TURKEYS

1. The Turkey show will consist of two classes. Class one will be Hens and Class Two will be Toms. The Poultry Judge will determine the sex of the bird(s) at the time of check-in.
2. Turkeys will be purchased through the Vocational Ag Science Teacher or County Extension Agent and will be ordered at the same time. Order deadline is 5:00 p.m., August 12, 2022.
3. All Turkeys must be owned, fed and cared for by the exhibitor from the day Turkeys arrive.
4. Each bird presented to the judge at check-in must wear a coded wingband. The identification number on the wingband must within the series of consecutively numbered birds assigned to that individual or their family at the time of taking procession of turkey poults. Turkeys losing their wingband for whatever reason or tampered with will not be eligible for show.
5. Turkeys must be number one #1 market grade birds without any deformities such as a crooked breast, tears, scratches, sores, blue bugs, lice, chigger bites, bruises, broken bones or disjointed bones. Such birds will be sifted.
6. An exhibitor may enter a maximum of 3 Turkey Hens and 3 Turkey Toms, if toms are available from A & M.

RABBITS

SUPERINTENDENT: Casey & Melanie Trenkelbach
ASST. SUPERINTENDENT: Monica Halsey
COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Laura Crist

COUNTY JUDGE: John Terry

MARKET RABBITS

1. Exhibitors shall have raised their entry or have purchased it by December 10, 2022. The same rabbits may not be born prior to November 3, 2022. Validation will be December 10, 2022 from 8-9:30 a.m. at Mansfield Park.
2. Each exhibitor may enter a maximum of 3 pens of market rabbits.
3. All rabbits must be tattooed on or before December 10, 2022. All marked rabbits must be brought in on December 10, 2022 for validation. You must have a 2022/2023 breeder certification form completely filled out and signed by the breeder stating the date the rabbits were kindled to be presented at the time of tattooing. These certificates will be submitted on December 10, 2022, to the superintendent of the show. Certification forms will be available from the superintendent, Vocational Ag Science Teachers or County Extension Agent.
4. Rabbits must be clean, free of any sign of disease, ear canker, malocclusion (buck teeth) sore hocks, sniffles, or blindness. Rabbits must arrive in a leak proof carrier and free of urine and runny or loose stools on their hair. Rabbits must be of show quality or they will be sifted. All sifted rabbits will be marked.
5. An entry will consist of 3 rabbits of either sex. Each rabbit must weigh between 3 and 5 pounds each. All rabbits must be a credit to the show.
6. Market pens will be shown in 3 divisions: New Zealand White; New Zealand Colored (black or red only) and Californian. Each meat pen shall appear to be of same breed.
7. Exhibitors will show their pen of rabbits on a table provided. Exhibitors must provide a show board on which to place their rabbits.
8. Each division will be broken into weight classes at the discretion of the superintendent.
9. Exhibitors may present only 3 rabbits to the sifter for one pen entry.
10. Ribbons will be awarded in each class.
11. All market pens to be kept must be removed immediately after show.

RABBITS

SUPERINTENDENT: Casey & Melanie Trenkelbach
ASST. SUPERINTENDENT: Monica Halsey
COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Laura Crist

COUNTY JUDGE: John Terry

COMMERCIAL MARKET BREEDING RABBITS

1. Entries must be New Zealand White, New Zealand Colored (red and black only) or Californian.
2. All breeding rabbits must have a legible tattoo. If the tattoo is faded and not legible or they don't have a tattoo, they must be brought in on December 10, 2022, to be validated.
3. Bucks and Does may be shown. Weight limits are 7.5 to 12 pounds.
4. A Champion and Reserve Champion breeding buck rabbit and breeding doe rabbit will be selected. Best of Show and Best Opposite Sex will be selected from the Champion Buck and Champion Doe.
5. Prize money will be awarded in each class.
6. All breeding rabbits must be removed immediately after show.

RABBIT SHOWMANSHIP

Written and oral tests will be used to determine the Rabbit Showmanship winners. These tests will be given prior to the rabbit judging.

HORSE

SUPERINTENDENT: Carey Reed
ASST. SUPERINTENDENT: Bryant McCartney

CLASSES

The division classes will be both Jr. and Sr.

Classes are:

Showmanship

Western Horsemanship

Trail

English Equitation

SPECIAL RULES

1. Entry fee will be $10 per class.
2. Open to all county members of 4-H and FFA.
3. All horses must be owned by the exhibitor and be in the exhibitor's possession and be under their management and care by November 1st prior to show. An exhibitor may show different horses, but not in the same class. Copy of Registration Paper or Grade Horse Certificate must be turned in with entry card.
4. Each exhibitor must present a negative coggins (E.I.A.) report for each horse shown that is current. Copy of coggins report must be turned in with entry card, and updated by date of the show if it expires before then.
5. No stallions may be shown.
6. An official (division superintendent or judge) may disqualify any horse or exhibitor from the competition for bad, unruly, and/or dangerous behavior, or un-sportsmanship like conduct. Any horse that appears unsafe around people or other animals must be removed from the grounds when requested by division superintendent or judge.
7. An exhibitor may not be assisted by any other person while in the show ring, nor may anyone other than the exhibitor ride their horse on the grounds.
8. All horses must be groomed at home or while safely tied to the exhibitor's trailer. No horses will be allowed on the grounds overnight.
9. Plaques will be awarded to the 1st place winner in each age division. Ribbons will be awarded in each class.
10. State 4-H Horse Show Rules will be used as show guidelines.
11. Exhibitors are required to show in the Showmanship at Halter class to be eligible to show in the Western Horsemanship, Trail or English Equitation classes.

HORSE

SUPERINTENDENT: Carey Reed
ASST. SUPERINTENDENT: Bryant McCartney

SHOWMANSHIP AT HALTER

1. The Showmanship class is judged on an exhibitor's ability to execute practical and basic halter class maneuvers from the ground. The class should always be judged with this in mind, giving credit to the exhibitor who can correctly perform each maneuver of the total pattern or run. In Showmanship at Halter, conformation of the horse is not judged.
2. All horses must be halter broken, manageable by the exhibitor, and in sound condition. Unsoundness may be penalized at the discretion of the judge.

WESTERN HORSEMANSHIP

1. Western Horsemanship recognizes the exhibitor's ability to ride a horse functionally and correctly using various aids to cause the horse to perform required basic maneuvers. The exhibitor will be judged, not the horse.

TRAIL

1. This class will be judged on the exhibitor's ability to skillfully maneuver the horse through a specified pattern of obstacles, with emphasis on manners, the horse's response to the rider and attitude.

ENGLISH EQUITATION

1. Horses will be shown in English tack and equipment. Exhibitors are required to wear a helmet.
2. Riders will be judged on their basic position in the saddle, which includes position of hands, seat, feet, and legs, as well as the ability to control and show the horse.
3. Scores on individual works will be based on the rider's skills and execution of the pattern, which is a specified pattern in a flat class.

SHOWMANSHIP

1. A junior exhibitor (13 yrs and under as of August 31, 2022) and senior exhibitor (14 yrs and over as of August 31, 2022) will be selected in the following categories:

Cattle	Heifers and Market Steers
Poultry	Turkeys and Broilers
Sheep	Market and Breeding
Swine	Market and Breeding
Goats	Angora, Market, and Breeding

2. All exhibitors will be eligible for showmanship.
3. The showmanship judge will work the ring during the finals, except poultry and rabbits.
4. Written and oral tests will be used to determine the Rabbit Showmanship winners. These tests will be given prior to the rabbit judging.
