GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Exhibitor(s) must be actively enrolled in 4-H or FFA in Bandera County. The Exhibitor(s) must live in Bandera County or attend school in Bandera County. The Exhibitor(s) must be in 3rd grade through 12th grade to be eligible to participate in the stock show.
2. All exhibitors must be academically eligible to exhibit their project(s). Exhibitors academically ineligible according to "NO PASS NO PLAY" are ineligible to participate in any BCJLS event or competition. Any entry owned by an ineligible exhibitor is ineligible for competition.
3. Final entries and fees must be received by the BCJLS Treasurer (Jim Mangold) no later than December 1, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. Exception: Rabbits, no later than December 7, 2025. Entries received after this date will be charged a $50 per entry late fee, until December 16th. Entries will be accepted after December 16th and until close of weighing and sifting of that division or up to close of check in for Agriculture Mechanics projects. An additional $200 late fee (cash only) will be charged for each entry after December 16th. ENTRY FEES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE.
4. Exhibitors must continuously own and personally feed and care for their animals(s) throughout the entire feeding period. The feeding period begins with the species validation date through exhibition at all shows. Prior approval must be granted by the species-specific County Validation Committee in the event the animal will be outside the direct care of the exhibitor
5. All species will be classified by an official classifier appointed by the Show. The decision as to which breed classification an animal will show in is up to the Classifier. Weights or age at which classes are split will be decided by the Division Superintendent and Assistant. Decisions of judges, classifiers, and sifters are final and may not be protested.
6. Only castrated male animals, female swine, ewe lambs, and doe goats will be allowed to show in market classes. Male animals entered in market classes that show evidence of testicles will be sifted. Castration and de-horning scar must be healed at show time.
7. This is a Premium Only Sale. Exhibitors will be allowed to sell only ONE market entry in the Auction. All exhibitors will sell according to placing (i.e.: Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Breed/Division Champions, Reserve Breed/Division Champions, first place, second place, third place, etc.). Exhibitors must notify division superintendents by 3:00 p.m. on Friday of which place they wish to sell or not sell. A sales/auction list will be compiled by show officials. Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion entries will go through the auction for picture purposes only. The animals will not be sold. Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion Ag Mechanics projects will be eligible for the premium auction.
8. Exhibitors will be limited to the following entries: 4 market lambs; 4 market goats; 4 market steers; 4 market hogs; 3 pens of broilers; 3 turkey toms; 3 turkey hens; and 4 pens market rabbits. Breeding animals are limited to 3 per breed. Angora goat exhibitors may have 3 entries per class. Three (3) entries are allowed in Farm mechanics.
9. Anyone making a protest must pay a $100 filing fee. Protest will be made to the Board of Directors. If the protest is won, money will be refunded. If the protest is lost, money will go to the show fund. Protest will not be considered unless the $100 filing fee has been put up with the Division Superintendent.
10. All show animals must be identified at the time of entry to show grounds.

11. Everyone is warned not to touch or tamper with the show animals without the owner's permission.
12. All exhibitors are expected to help the show officials and other exhibitors when needed.
13. All animals, except Grand Champions and Reserve Grand Champions, leaving the show must be released by the Division Superintendent.
14. All entries must be a credit to the show. All entries not a credit to the show may be sifted by the Board of Directors. Any animal that cannot be reasonably controlled will be sifted by the Board of Directors, and must be removed from the grounds when notified by the Division Superintendent.
15. Any one acting as an extra holder must be entered and eligible to exhibit in the current year's show. Exception: Poultry.
16. No one will be allowed in the show barn or on the grounds after 12:00 a.m. (midnight).
17. The show and the officials of the show will not be responsible for losses or injuries.
18. All questions that arise not covered by the rules or any questions in regard to the rules will be answered by the Board of Directors.
19. All changes made in the rules will go into effect the following year.
20. A commission of 7.5% will be charged on all animals/items sold through the auction.
21. An entry fee of $20 on sheep, goats, swine, pen of broilers, pen or rabbits, and turkeys; $20 on Ag mechanic projects; and $20 on cattle and $10 per class on horses will be charged on all entries.
22. All sifted animals (market and breeding) must be removed from the grounds by the exhibitor on the day of check-in.
23. First place entry from each class will compete for Breed/Division Champion of show. Second place entry from the class that furnished breed Champion will compete for Reserve Champion of the breed/division. Breed Champions will compete for Grand Champion of Show. Reserve breed Champion from the breed that furnished the Grand Champion will compete for Reserve Grand Champion of the show.
24. The judge will decide what place ribbon (i.e. 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.) an entry is worthy of, if only one is showing in a class.
25. Animal abuse will not be allowed.
26. It is the responsibility of exhibitors to check animals in and out with the Division Superintendent. If an exhibitor cannot do this, they must notify the Division Superintendent.
27. Judges will be selected by the Judge Selection Committee.
28. No bedding hay will be allowed in the show barn.
29. Exhibitor must show their animal in order to sell at the auction.
30. Exhibitors must be present and check-in with Auction/Exhibitor Line-Up Committee before their project item is due to sell in Auction. All projects must sell in the order as determined by the sales list. Any exhibitor not present when project is called to sell will not be allowed to sell in the Auction.

31. Animals may be weighed no more than twice. Animals must weigh within 2% of weight limits in order to be re-weighed.
32. Medications can only be administered to an animal during the show under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian and must be approved by the division superintendent.
33. DOUBLE ENTRIES (market and breeding) will only be allowed in the sheep, goat, and swine divisions.
34. Stomach pumping, drenching tubes, or any other method (by esophagus) is prohibited.
35. Exhibitors are responsible for any costs, penalties, etc., for drug residues found in any animal.
36. Exhibitors must bring a written "thank you note" in a stamped, unsealed envelope addressed to the buyer(s) of their animal/Ag. Mech. Project and to the sponsors of buckles, plaques, and/or banners awarded to them by March 3, 2026 or a 25% penalty will be assessed. If thank you notes are not received by April 1, 2026, the exhibitor forfeits the entire amount they would have received. Exhibitors' checks will be distributed by County Extension Agents and Vocational Agriculture Teachers on April 1, 2026. Exhibitor must also bring a written "thank you note" to the sponsor of their trophy and/or buckle if they received one. Names and addresses can be obtained from the County Extension Office or the Vocational Ag Teacher. Any exhibitor's check not cashed by June 30, 2026 shall become null and void, and the funds shall be deposited in the Bandera County Jr. Livestock Show Association General fund.
37. Only the exhibitor will be allowed in the auction ring on the day of the sale with the exception of Grand and Reserve Grand Champions who will be allowed one assistant. Grand and Reserve Grand Champion animals must stay on exhibit during the sale. Animals cannot be decorated for the sale. No glitter, bandanas, extra clipping, etc. will be allowed. Animals should be exhibited the way they were shown. No alcohol allowed in buyer gift baskets.
38. NO DOGS, or other animals not entered in the show, will be allowed on grounds.
39. Violation of any rule may result in ejection from the show.
40. All sales add-ons must be done in the show office. A buyer's number and buyer's agreement card must be completed for each add-on.
41. If a family member buys or adds on money to an exhibitor, the exhibitor cannot receive their check until the family member's bill is paid in full.
42. All exhibitors must sign and comply with Texas 4-H/FFA Program Ethics Policy.
43. No floor prices for any species.
44. All animals must be penned in barn and will be assigned pens/stalls; showing out of trailers is prohibited.

ASST. SUPERINTENDENT: Bryant McCartney
Committee Members: KD Cortez

County Judge: TBD

SPECIAL RULES

1. Entry fee will be $10 per class.
2. Open to all county members of 4-H and FFA. Classes will be divided into Junior and Senior divisions.
3. All horses must be owned by the exhibitor, be in the exhibitor's possession, and be under their management and care by November 1st prior to show. An exhibitor may show different horses, but not in the same class. Copy of Registration Paper or Grade Horse Certificate must be turned in with entry card. Lease horses are accepted with a copy of the Lease Agreement and with the Horse Division Superintendent's approval.
4. Each exhibitor must present a negative Coggins (E.I.A.) report for each horse shown that is current as of the day of the show. Coggins report may be turned in on the day of the show or be mailed or texted to the Superintendent.
5. No stallions may be shown.
6. An official (division superintendent or judge) may disqualify any horse or exhibitor from the competition for bad, unruly, and/or dangerous behavior, or un-sportsmanship like conduct. Any horse that appears unsafe around people or other animals must be removed from the grounds when requested by division superintendent or judge.
7. An exhibitor may not be assisted by any other person while in the show ring, nor may anyone other than the exhibitor ride their horse on the grounds.
8. All horses must be groomed at home or while safely tied to the exhibitor's trailer. No horses will be allowed on the grounds overnight.
9. Ribbons will be awarded in each class.

Classes

SHOWMANSHIP AT HALTER

1. The Showmanship class is judged on an exhibitor's ability to execute practical and basic halter class maneuvers from the ground. The class should always be judged with this in mind, giving credit to the exhibitor who can correctly perform each maneuver of the total pattern.

WESTERN HORSEMANSHIP

1. Western Horsemanship recognizes the exhibitor's ability to ride a horse functionally and correctly using various aids to cause the horse to perform required basic maneuvers. The exhibitor will be judged, not the horse.

TRAIL

1. This class will be judged on the exhibitor's ability to skillfully maneuver the horse through a specified pattern of obstacles, with emphasis on manners, the horse's response to the rider and attitude.

ENGLISH EQUITATION

1. Horses will be shown in English tack and equipment. Exhibitors are required to wear a helmet.
2. Riders will be judged on their basic position in the saddle, which includes position of hands, seat, feet, and legs, as well as the ability to control and show the horse. Scores on individual works will be based on the rider's skills and execution of the pattern.

SHOWMANSHIP

1. Classifications by age:
 - a. Junior exhibitor (10 years old and under as of August 31, 2025)
 - b. Intermediate exhibitor (between 11 and 13 years old as of August 31, 2025)
 - c. Senior exhibitor (14 years old and over as of August 31, 2025) will be selected in the following categories:

Cattle	Dexter Showmanship
	Heifers and Market Steers (No Dexters)
Poultry	Turkeys and Broilers
Sheep	Market and Breeding
Swine	Market and Breeding
Goats	Angora, Market, and Breeding
2. All exhibitors will be eligible for showmanship.
3. The showmanship judge will work the ring during the finals, except poultry and rabbits.
4. An oral test will be used to determine the Rabbit Showmanship winners. The oral test will be given after the Rabbit Division show has completed.
